

THREE MORE HOMES ARE LOOTED IN EAST END

Robbers Still Busy, Despite Police
Efforts—Think Small Boy
Was Used by Thieves

Robbers have been continuing a series of robberies in the East End were busy again Friday night and three more homes were visited by the burglars. Several hundred dollars worth of articles were stolen, a result of the burglaries. This makes ten homes that have been entered in the section during one week. They entered the home of Harry's Grocery Company at Fifteenth and Dock Streets, and many of the desks rifled of their contents. The amount of money and articles taken could not be determined.

Entrance to the building was gained by climbing up the fire escape at the rear of the building through the glass door, the glass being broken through the third floor window. After smashing the window, the crooks were thrown aside and it was found the next morning at the place a small piece of glass said to be only ten by sixteen inches, was removed. It is believed that the burglar, who was pushed through the opening, may have pushed through the window.

It is also believed that this same set of thieves entered the store of S. Straus, 50 West Street. The bell, which was hanging from the window frame, was broken, and the door was forced open. A small hole in the window, this being the only means the thieves had to get in, was found broken. As the opening was too small for a man to crawl through police last night were of the opinion that a small boy is being used by the burglars to roll the door.

At least one clue has been found in the belief of the police. Finger prints, which a fingerprint expert of the State Department, being recorded, were found on the shutters of a window of Miss Lorraine Luckett's room, 100 North Twenty-third Street. Miss Luckett said that she awakened during the night and heard a voice outside her window exclaim, "The things are upstairs and we have to have to get out." It is said it sounded to her like a negro's voice. Laying quietly she heard the window start to rise. Jumping from the bed she got out and saw what she could. This frightened the thief away. Later the prints on the shutters were found.

CAMPAIGN ON FIRE PREVENTION CLOSES

Chamber of Commerce Pleased at Outcome

Featuring the close of Fire Prevention Week was the showing of two educational motion pictures in the Isis Theater yesterday morning through the efforts of Harry Bernstein. The campaign, which was conducted jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the fire prevention bureau, was the effort of public safety, it is thought, will prove of great value in keeping down fire hazards. Officers of the chamber yesterday after the program had been a success and that they expected it would result in a substantial reduction in the fire losses of Richmond this year. The campaign was carried on by the local manufacturers and industrial establishments of the city and in the public schools. Eighty special inspectors examined buildings in the downtown district during the week.

EAT MORE BREAD WEEK, MOVEMENT OF BAKERS

Educational Campaign to Increase Consumption of Bakes to Be Conducted.

Richmond bakers will observe "Eat More Bread Week" this week, and the educational campaign of the week will not only increase the volume of bread, but of the baker's loaf. It was announced yesterday. The movement is to be observed throughout the country, and bakers of the city are co-operating in the movement.

Among the facts to be shown will be that bread is used more than any other food commodity and that no meal is complete without it. The use of stale bread in the making of toast, dressing, puddings and other delicious dishes is well known. The movement adopted has been "Two slices for one" and will emphasize that good bread is per cent stronger and energy containing twice as many units of protein or potatoes and ten times the amount of meat. It will be shown also in the campaign that the bread baked at home, using eating quality plants is as good as it is possible to bake, and is cheaper than it can be baked by the housewife, whose operation is being sought in buying bakers' bread.

WILSON SUFFERS NO ILL EFFECTS FROM ACTIVITIES

Is Up at Usual Time, and Directs Hanging of Pictures and Place-

ing of Furniture.

THE Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Word came today from the home of Woodrow Wilson that the former President apparently had suffered no ill effects from his trip yesterday to the Capitol, where Mr. Wilson was up at the usual hour this morning and busied himself about his new home, directing the hanging of pictures and arranging of furniture.

Mr. Wilson received today a letter from the retiring members of his Cabinet telling him how great a place he occupied in their honor, love and esteem.

"The final moments of the Cabinet on Tuesday," said the letter, "found us quite unable to express the poignant feelings with which we realized the hour of leave-taking and placing at our command, always in the most considerate way, the wisdom of your counsel. History will acclaim you, and we simply thank you for your great and eminent qualities. We who have known you intimately bear witness to this now."

"We fervently wish you, Mr. President, long life and happiness that you so richly deserve and have so abundantly earned."

Laughter and mirth, joyous and placing at our command, always in the most considerate way, the wisdom of your counsel. History will acclaim you, and we simply thank you for your great and eminent qualities. We who have known you intimately bear witness to this now."

trust and confidence that he touched us all supporting and defending us when under partisan attack, with abundant and unremitting burdens of the president."
